Prelude

Gathering

P- This evening our Lenten observation comes to an end, and we gather with Christians around the world to celebrate Jesus' death and resurrection.

C- I give you a new commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you. John 13:34

P- Tonight we remember Christ's last meal with his disciples, but the central focus is his commandment that we live out the promise embodied as a meal.

C- I give you a new commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you. John 13:34

P- As Jesus washed his disciples' feet, so we are called to give and receive love in humble service to one another.

C- I give you a new commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you. John 13:34

P- Formed into a new body in Christ through this holy meal, we are transformed by the mercy we have received and carry into the world. Departing worship in solemn silence, we anticipate the coming days.

C- I give you a new commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you. John 13:34

Gathering Hymn – ELW 779, Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound
First verse only.

Amazing grace how sweet the sound - that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
was blind, but now I see.

Confession and Forgiveness

All may make the sign of the cross that is marked at baptism as the pastor begins.

P- Friends in Christ, in this Lenten season we have heard our Lord's struggle against sin, death, and the devil—all that keeps us from loving God and each other.

This is the struggle we are called at baptism. Within the community of this church, God never wearies of forgiving sin and giving the peace of reconciliation. On this night, let us confess our sin against God and neighbor, and enter celebration where we are reconciled with God and neighbor.

C- Amen

Silence is kept for reflection.

P- Most merciful God,

C- we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.

We have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,

by what we have done and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart;

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.

Forgive us and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

P- God who is rich in mercy, loved us

even when we were dead to sin,

and made us alive together in Christ.

By grace you have been saved.

In the name + of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven.

Almighty God strengthen you with power

through the Holy Spirit,

that Christ may live in your hearts through faith.

C- Amen -

Readings

Exodus 12:1-14 - The First Passover Instituted

Lector – Israel remembers its deliverance from slavery in Egypt by celebrating the festival of the Passover. The festival featured the Passover lamb, whose blood was used as a sign to protect God's people from the threat of death. The early church described the Lord's Supper using imagery from the Passover, especially in portraying Jesus as the lamb who delivers God's people from sin and death.

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the Passover of the LORD. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgements: I am the LORD. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance. Here ends this reading.

Psalm 116:1-2, 12-19 - Read responsively.

I love the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my supplications.

Because he inclined his ear to me,
therefore I will call on him as long as I live.

What shall I return to the LORD
for all his bounty to me?

I will lift up the cup of salvation
and call on the name of the LORD,

I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.

Precious in the sight of the LORD
is the death of his faithful ones.

O LORD, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the child of your serving-maid.
You have loosed my bonds.

I will offer to you a thanksgiving sacrifice
and call on the name of the LORD.

I will pay my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people,
in the courts of the house of the LORD,

in your midst, O Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD!

1st Corinthians 11:23-26

Lector – In the bread and the cup of the Lord’s Supper, we experience intimate fellowship with Christ and with one another because it involves his body given for us and the new covenant in his blood. Faithful participation in this meal is a living proclamation of Christ’s death until he comes in the future.

For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.’ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.” Here ends this reading.

Prayer of the Day

P- Holy God,

C- source of all love, on the night in which he was handed over, Jesus gave us a new commandment, to love one another as he loves us. Write this commandment on and in our hearts, and give us your Spirit to serve one another as Jesus was servant to all, through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen

Gospel – John 13:1-17, 31b-35

P- The story of the last supper in John’s gospel recalls a remarkable event not mentioned elsewhere; Jesus performs the duty of a slave, washing the feet of his disciples and urging them to do the same for one another.

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples’ feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?” Jesus answered, “You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand.” Peter said to him, “You will never wash my feet.” Jesus answered, “Unless I wash you, you have no share with me.” Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!” Jesus said to him, “One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you.” For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, “Not all of you are clean.”

After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.”

When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’ I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”
The Gospel of the Lord.

C- Praise to you, O Lord!

Message – Now and Forever

Offering Hymn – ELW 543, Go, My Children, with My Blessing

First verse only.

Go, my children, with my blessing, never alone.
Waking, sleeping, I am with you; you are my own.
In my love's baptismal river
I have made you mine forever.
Go, my children, with my blessing, you are my own.

Offering Prayer

P- God of glory,

C- receive these gifts and the offering of our lives.

As Jesus was lifted from the earth,
draw us to your heart and away from this world,
that all creation may be released

from worldly bondage to heavenly freedom,
from darkness to light, and from death to life,
through your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,

who proceeds from the Father and the Son,*
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the Church – *When the pastor says, “Lord in your mercy”
please respond by saying, “Hear our prayer!”*

Words of Institution

P- On the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus, took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
“Take and eat, this is my body given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
“This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

Lord’s Prayer

P- Let us pray the prayer Jesus taught us to pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

P- Living God,
C- in the mystery of Christ’s resurrection,
you send light to conquer darkness,
water to give new life,
and the bread of heaven to nourish your people.
Send us out to witness to Jesus’ resurrection,
that we may show your glory to all the world;
through the same Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

Stripping the altar.

Psalm 22 - Read responsively

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

Why are you so far from helping me, from the words of my groaning?

O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer;
and by night, but find no rest.

Yet you are holy,

enthroned on the praises of Israel.

In you our ancestors trusted;

they trusted, and you delivered them.

To you they cried, and were saved;

in you they trusted, and were not put to shame.

But I am a worm, and not human;

scorned by others, and despised by the people.

All who see me mock at me;

they make mouths at me, they shake their heads;

'Commit your cause to the LORD; let him deliver—

let him rescue the one in whom he delights!'

Yet it was you who took me from the womb;

you kept me safe on my mother's breast.

On you I was cast from my birth, and since my mother bore me you have been my God.

Do not be far from me,

for trouble is near

and there is no one to help.

Many bulls encircle me,

strong bulls of Bashan surround me;

they open wide their mouths at me,

like a ravening and roaring lion.

I am poured out like water,

and all my bones are out of joint;

my heart is like wax;

it is melted within my breast;

my mouth is dried up like a potsherd,

and my tongue sticks to my jaws;

you lay me in the dust of death.

For dogs are all around me;
a company of evildoers encircles me.
My hands and feet have shrivelled;
I can count all my bones.
They stare and gloat over me;
they divide my clothes among themselves,
and for my clothing they cast lots.

But you, O LORD, do not be far away!
O my help, come quickly to my aid!
Deliver my soul from the sword,
my life from the power of the dog!
Save me from the mouth of the lion!

From the horns of the wild oxen you have rescued me.
I will tell of your name to my brothers and sisters;
in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him;
stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!
For he did not despise or abhor
the affliction of the afflicted;
he did not hide his face from me,
but heard when I cried to him.

From you comes my praise in the great congregation;
my vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and be satisfied;
those who seek him shall praise the LORD.
May your hearts live forever!

All the ends of the earth shall remember
and turn to the LORD;
and all the families of the nations
shall worship before him.
For dominion belongs to the LORD,
and he rules over the nations.

To him, indeed, shall all who sleep in the earth bow down;

before him shall bow all who go down to the dust,
and I shall live for him.

Posterity will serve him;

future generations will be told about the Lord,
and proclaim his deliverance to a people yet unborn,
saying that he has done it.

We leave in silence.
